

Center Activity

Higher Level Thinking Activity

Students each get a card and they have to come up with a question starting with the word that is on their card? All students should have the read a selected text prior.

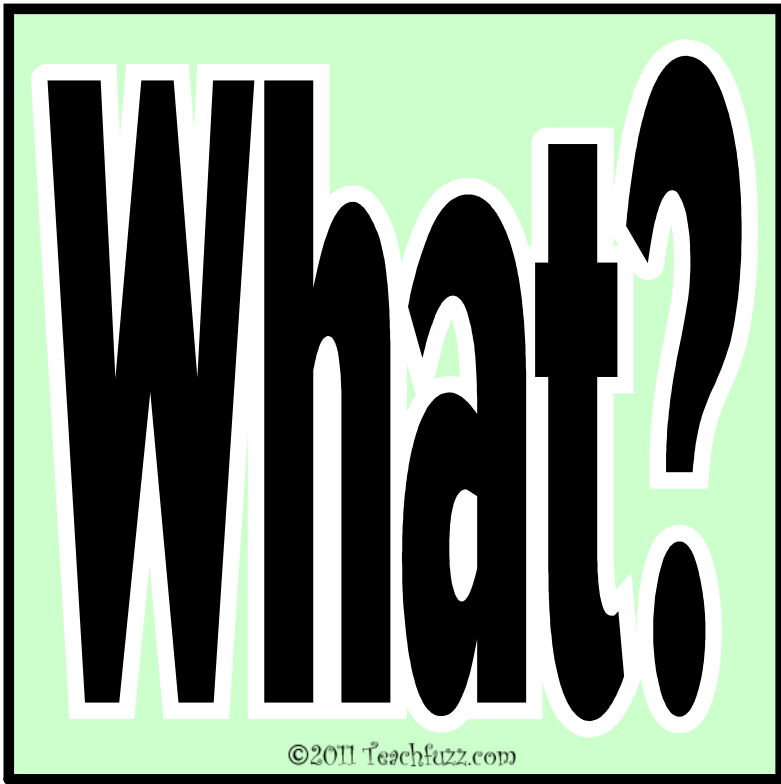

Someone else in the group has to answer.

Example:
What: What is your favorite part of the story?

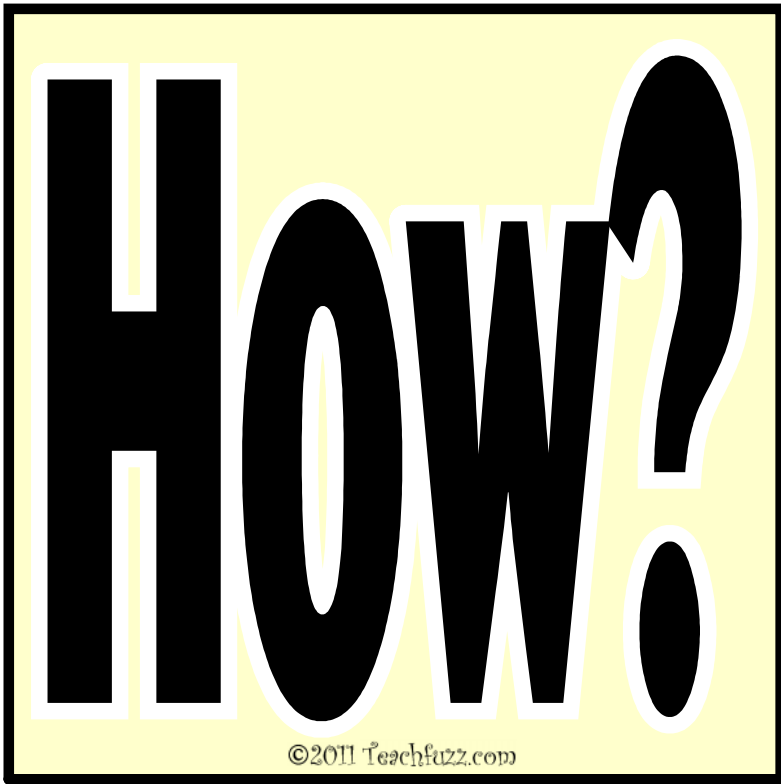

Why: Why do you think the main character felt the way she did?

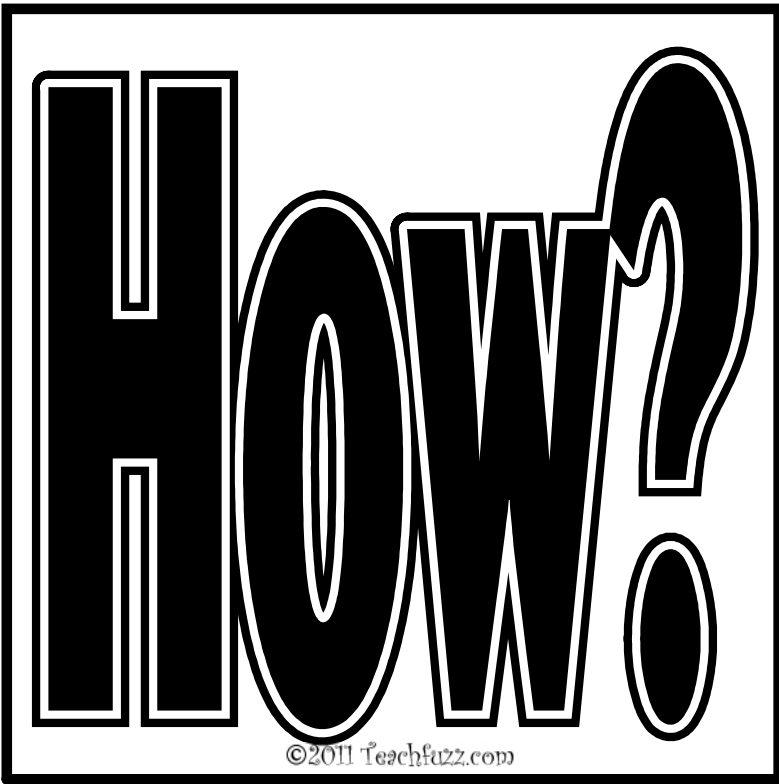

Black & White copy

Black & White copy

