

Name: _____

Understanding Place Value

1. If you have 80 bananas how many groups of tens would you have?

2. If have 60 gumballs how many groups of tens would you have?

3. If you have 25 balloons how many groups of ten will you have? _____

How many ones will you have? _____

4. If you only have 20 pieces of candy but you need 43 piece total how many more tens do you need? _____

How many ones will you need? _____

5. Is it easier to count by tens or by ones? _____

Explain why? _____
