

Vowel Rules

When there are 2 vowels next to each other we say they are taking a walk and the first one in the word is usually doing the talking. Most of the time when 2 vowels are next to each other the 1st vowel that is talking will be a long vowel sound.

"When 2 vowels are walking the first one does the talking"

bean read soap toad

