

Directions: After completing the character cube, cut out around the entire cube. Only cut on the outside lines. Do not cut the pages apart. Fold on each solid line. Finally, glue the first side to the side that says Glue here.

Draw a picture of the main character.

Describe the main character.

Who are the minor characters? These are characters that are not as important to the story.

What do you like about the main character?

