

Flip Book Riddles

Students describe an animal or a person on the front flap. Next, have them fold the paper in half on the solid line. On the inside the students draw a picture of their mystery animal or person. Have students read their description to their classmates and see if they can guess what it is from the description.

_____ Name:

fold

Who Am I Riddle?

