

Name: _____

Date: _____

Fiction Non-fiction or Realistic fiction

Directions: Read each passage.

Decide what genre it is and circle the correct answer.

Once upon a time there was a pig, named Juniper. She was different than most pigs. Juniper could read and write. All the kids in the neighborhood, loved her. She would read to them everyday. Juniper would write silly poems for the kids, which made them laugh. Juniper was the most unusual pig, but was loved by everyone!

fiction non-fiction realistic-fiction

Frogs and toads are both called amphibians. Amphibians are animals who begin their lives in the water. During this time they breathe with gills. When they mature, they are able to live on land and breathe with lungs.

fiction non-fiction realistic-fiction

A boy named Jim, was new to the neighborhood and feeling lonely. He wondered if would make any friends. One day, he went to the park and he met a boy named Dante. Dante, was new to the neighborhood too and had felt lonely too. Dante and Jim played all day at the park. After that day they became best friends and didn't feel lonely anymore.

fiction non-fiction realistic-fiction

